

PhD-defense by Thomas Trøst Hansen

"The Impacts of Academic Events – Cycles of credibility as an analytical framework"

June 11, 2020, 9.00-12.00 (CET)

The PhD-defense session will take place online through Skype for Business
For participation, please contact hannepc@hum.aau.dk

Main Supervisor: Associate Professor David Budtz Pedersen, Aalborg University
Co-supervisors: Director of Convention, Kit Lykketoft, Wonderful Copenhagen
Associate Professor, Carina Ren, Aalborg University

Evaluation Committee: Chair, Professor Christian Jantzen, Aalborg University
PhD, Senior Researcher Mads P. Sørensen, Aarhus University
Professor Margaret Deery, University of Technology, Sidney

08:30 Skype for Business-session opens for log-on

09.00 Start of PhD-defense

Welcome and presentation by moderator, David Budtz Pedersen (Main Supervisor)

PhD-lecture by Thomas Trøst Hansen: The Impacts of Academic Events – Cycles of credibility as an analytical framework

09.45 Break (15 minutes)

10.00 Questions from the defense committee

Question from the audience: During the break, members of the audience are welcome to email questions to the moderator (davidp@hum.aau.dk). The moderator will then open the microphone or ask the question on behalf of the participant.

When the session is concluded, the defense committee will leave the session to discuss the final evaluation report and return to present the result.

12.00 Closing of the PhD-defense

Contact persons:

David Budtz Pedersen, email: davidp@hum.aau.dk /

Hanne Porsborg Clausen: email hannepc@hum.aau.dk

Defense Official: Vice Dean Anette Therkelsen